

November 9, 2019

Council on American-Islamic Relations
San Francisco Bay Area Office
3160 De La Cruz Blvd., Ste. 110
Santa Clara, CA 95054

Dear Friends,

It is my distinct pleasure to commend and acknowledge the San Francisco Bay Area Office of the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR-SFBA) as they celebrate their 25th year of outstanding service. Thank you for your contributions to the American Muslim community.

I am grateful for the opportunity to recognize the importance of your work as a non-profit organization. Your wide spectrum of achievements and efforts through civic engagement, legal services, outreach & education, and youth empowerment are significantly impactful and transcend beyond your immediate community.

For 25 years now, CAIR-SFBA has proactively assisted American Muslims and fostered a diverse environment that promotes an enhanced understanding of Islam, protects civil rights, and empowers American Muslims. CAIR-SFBA continues to work tirelessly to ensure that every person, no matter their background, has a chance to become a leading advocate for justice and empathy. On behalf of the California Legislature, I extend my sincerest congratulations and best wishes for your organization's continued success.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Evan Low", written in a cursive style.

Evan Low
Chair, Committee on Business and Professions
Assemblymember, 28th District – San José/Silicon Valley